

From the office of

SANTA'S ELVES

It's the most wonderful time of year,
the time to pass on Christmas cheer.

Now that your family elf is out,
here is a rule you should know about:

I must make room in your house for new toys to fit,
and renew your old toys with fresh Christmas spirit.

Leave out three old toys tonight,

I'll take them to Santa who will fix them up right.

He'll give a new little boy or girl your old toy,
and spread all sorts of Christmas joy.

Your favorite elf,
